Answers:

Ken and Jane looked out the window at the falling snow. It was Christmas Eve and the night had a magical glow.

The house was decorated with a Christmas tree and candles in the windows. On the table was a plate of cookies and a glass of milk for Santa Claus.

“I hope I get a new game from Santa Claus,” said Ken, “I’m going to watch out the window and see if I can see his sleigh.”

“It’s time for bed, children,” said Mother, “You will have to wait until Christmas day to see what Santa Claus brings for you.”
