“Don't you wish we could play like this all year?” said Sam.

“I think that would be great,” said Dave, “The best days for us are snow days. I wish every day was a snow day.”

Sam and Dave rolled around and around in the snow. Snow got down their jackets and in their mittens. They both laughed.

“Let's use our sleds,” said Sam, “You can go down the hill first.”

“Thank-you, Sam,” said Dave, “You are a good friend. You always let me go first. Let's go on the sled together.”
